

The Right Specialist-The Right Care

Key Personnel:

Ronald G. Nahass, MD, FACP, FIDSA	Project Director
Bruce M. Topolosky, MPS, CHE	Administration
Debbie M. Winters, APRN-BC, AACRN	Clinical Training Specialist/ Program Coordinator

Clinical Consultants:

- David Herman, MD, FACP
- Ellen Hirsh, MD, FACP
- Robert Segal, MD
- Lisa Pittarelli, MD, FACP
- Meena Seenivasan, MD
- Scott Sinner, MD
- Jerry Sheen, MD
- Rohit Bhalla, DO

Special Annual Events:

- HIV Update for Grand Rounds at Somerset Medical Center, St. Peter's Medical Center and University Medical Center at Princeton, St Clare's Hospital
- Annual Bloodborne Pathogens training (HIV/PEP/Hep B&C) for Middlesex County First-Responders and Healthcare professionals

Site Area of Expertise:

1. TB Co-Infection
2. Hepatitis B and C Co-Infection
3. HIV Pharmaceutical Trials (Enrollment Opportunities and Update of results)
4. Early HIV Testing/CDC Guidelines
5. Acute Retroviral Syndrome and Early Intervention Strategies
6. HIV Disease Management in Correctional Facilities
7. Multidisciplinary training in HIV Disease Treatment and Management
8. Multidisciplinary training on Adherence strategies
9. Management of Common OI's
10. Multi-level training on epidemiology, pathogenesis and emerging therapies
11. Community centered HIV nursing challenges
12. Wellness and living with HIV Disease
13. Metabolic Complications in HIV Disease

Longitudinal Training Sites:

1. Plainfield Health Center
2. Henry J. Austin Health Center
3. Somerset Medical Center-Ryan White Clinic
4. University Medical Center at Princeton
5. VNA of Central Jersey
6. Somerset County Jail
7. Middlesex County Jail
8. Edna Mahon Correctional Facility
9. NJ State Prison
10. St. Peter's Adult HIV clinic
11. Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital
12. Riverview Medical Center
13. Middlesex County Health Department
14. Broad Street Clinic - Trenton

Programs to Expand/Regionalize: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Increase Group Level IV discussions at each LTS site• Level I, II, III, IV and V trainings at new FQHC site beginning in 2010• Active participation at HIV multidisciplinary team meetings at new LTS site• Enroll ACCESS participant (MD and/or APRN) from new LTS site
Catchment Area: Central New Jersey region including Somerset, Middlesex, Mercer, Hunterdon, Monmouth and Ocean counties.
AETC Partner since: 2002	