

HIV Medication Errors
John J. Faragon, PharmD, BCPS, AAHIVE

February 2009 – December 2009

ACPE#: 170-999-09-016-H02-P

Directions: At the end of the program, please circle your response of either A, B, C or D. The self-assessment questions are used to both measure knowledge gained, and to see if the presenter met the objectives for his topic.

- 1) Which of the following medications need to be dose adjusted in renal impairment?
 - a. lopinavir/ritonavir
 - b. nevirapine
 - c. abacavir
 - d. tenofovir

- 2) Which of the following medications should not be used together in HIV regimens?
 - a. tenofovir and emtricitabine
 - b. unboosted atazanavir and pantoprazole
 - c. abacavir and lamivudine
 - d. zidovudine and lamivudine

- 3) Methods for preventing medication prescribing errors include:
 - a. periodic educational updates on HIV medications for staff.
 - b. open approach to medication errors that includes reviewing examples with staff.
 - c. following DHHS guidelines as best possible for each patient
 - d. all of the above